Dear Mr Humphreys

Re: Conduct issues

I refer to my previous letter to you of 19th January 2018, and as predicted, you did not respond.

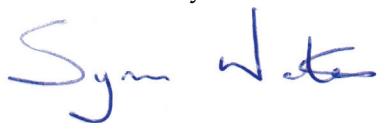

Am I to take it from your absence of any reply that you find the contents of the attachment to that letter to be acceptable, in that such attachment appears to bring to the fore issues of solicitor fraud, as well as apparent corruption both within the OLSC and the Law Society of NSW?

Further, I provide to you and attach copy of letter of yesterday's date to the NSW Legal Services Commissioner. The content of such is self-explanatory.

Given the OLSC's silence (as well as your own, may I add), there seems to be a distinct 'wall of protection' in operation, however, given the Legal Services Commissioner's careless contradictory statements and admissions, chinks are beginning to appear.

You will note the involvement of the Independent Commission Against Corruption in this matter and also of its full knowledge of the events that have taken place.

Yours faithfully

Symn Waters
