Dear Mr McKenzie

Re: Corrupt conduct

When I tell people that Terence Goldberg provided false statements to the Court in order to create an equally false debt against an incorporated association, and then provided moneys from that association to an acquaintance of his, with that acquaintance holding criminal convictions for child sex offences, and that you, the Legal Services Commissioner, did everything in your power to cover up the above, the first question, without fail, to come out of everyone's mouth is: "Do you think it's a paedophile ring?"

My answer, each and every time, is that I have no evidence of such.

Yours faithfully
